ST. MATTHEW'S HOUSE ANNUAL EASTER DINNER HAPPENING THIS SUNDAY, APRIL 12TH

On Sunday, April 12th, from Noon – 4 pm, St. Matthew's House will once again be providing a delicious Easter dinner to its residents, the homeless, needy, and anyone who is hungry at its main shelter at 2001 Airport Rd in Naples. Individuals and families are welcome to join St. Matthew's House for a sumptuous array of traditional Easter favorites served by volunteers. Easter groceries still needed include fresh potatoes, fresh & canned sweet potatoes and ham. St. Matthew's House is also seeking donations to help stock their food pantry, in preparation for the summer months when supplies run low. Please consider donating kitchen items before heading north. St. Matthew's House is in need of coffee, bottled water, dry cereal, powdered milk, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter and jelly, all of which are staples in the approximately 80 bags of groceries given out weekly. Please help to keep supplies on the shelves, so those in need in our community won't go hungry! For more information about St. Matthew's House and their Easter celebration, please contact Julie Clay or Mike Vallee at 239-774-0500.
